Praying for the World

Pray for those who suffer – the homeless, asylum seekers, refugees, the persecuted, and prisoners of conscience, remembering those who bring hope to those in need and those who been martyred for their faith in Jesus Christ.

Pray for those who pursue mission and interfaith initiatives – media, medical, relief, education, evangelism, church planting, environmental, and dialogue, remembering the self-sacrifice many make to follow God's leading in these spheres of service.

Pray for those who promote peace and the wellbeing of the world – world leaders (secular and religious), the United Nations, reconciliation agencies, and environmental organisations.

Praying for the Parish

Please pray for Conference Grove, Place, Road & Terrace.

Praying for the sick

Please pray for June Cockburn, Janet Fraser-Smith, Emma Parsons, Rev. Mary Jarvis, Ivy May Rankin, Phil Arnold, Joyce le Masurier, Gemma Blair, Nel, Doreen Armitage, Betty Greechan, Sandra Bell.

NEWS & INFORMATION

Dear friends,

The summer has finally arrived and we've had a few days this week when it's been really hot.

Over the next few weeks there won't be separate news sheets, so this it until September.

If you're new to Christ Church, welcome. I hope and pray that you'll find it a welcoming and loving community. Please don't leave church without speaking with someone first.

Over the past few months we've seen some green shoots as we've emerged from the Pandemic, but have faced other challenges, such as the cost-of-living crisis and the horror of what is happening in the Ukraine.

My encouragement to you during the remainder of July and August is to spend some time recharging your batteries. Perhaps get a couple of books to read; if you can get away for a few days; pray, spend time with friends, and try to slow down. We seem to be faced with an unprecedented number of curve balls as individuals and as a nation, and we all will benefit from spending some time catching our breath. So let's try to make it a Sabbath month and enjoy some well-earned rest.

God bless,

Phil

Alpha – advanced notice

On Wednesday 14th September, we will begin an Alpha course in church. In keeping with the hospitality aspect, each week will begin with a meal.
